Solo Dating: How To Embrace Me Time & Why It Could Improve Your Mental Wellbeing

August 12, 2024 | By Jamie Styles

Whenever I have a free weekend, I take myself out. In my head, I am John Travolta in the opening of Saturday Night Fever; in reality, I am more like Tobey Maguire as Peter Parker in Spider-Man. But instead of Spidey senses, web-slinging and a side parting, I navigate life with mild dyslexia, skin sensitivity and what I keep telling my friends is a "mature" hairline. However, spending dedicated time in my own company on a solo date has allowed me to discover who I am, away from the influences of others, and improve my overall wellbeing.

I'm not alone in feeling this way. From taking a book as your date to your favourite cafe

BEAUTIFUL LONERS

Solitude, Autonomy, JOMO (Joy of Missing Out)

Beautiful Loners marks a profound shift in collective perception of solitude, independence, and self-contentment. Here we see solitude as a valid, fulfilling choice rather than a social failing. This narrative emphasises having a healthy, empowered relationship with oneself.

"Beautiful Loners" is about consciously choosing a life focused on personal peace and inner clarity. This gives rise to apparel and products that embrace a highly individualistic approach, designed with indoor experiences in mind and services that minimize interaction while prioritizing convenience.
